THE CROAKER

Once on the edge of a pleasant pool,
Under the bank where 'twas dark and cool,
Where bushes over the water hung,
And rushes nodded and grasses swung,
Just where the crick flowed outer the fog,
There lived a grumpy and mean old frog,
Who'd sit all day in the mud and soak
And just do nothing but croak an' croak,
Till a blackbird hollered, "I say, yer know,
What's the matter down there below?
Are you in trouble, er pain, er what?"
The frog sez, "Mine is an orful lot;
Nothing but mud and dirt and slime
For me to look at just all the time.
Its a dirty world!" so the old fool spoke,
"Croakity croakity croakity croak!"
"But yer looking down!" the blackbird said;
"Look at the blossoms overhead,
Look at the lovely summer skies,
Look at the bees and butterflies,
Look up, old feller. Why, bless your soul.
Yer looking down in a muskrat hole!"
But still with a gurgling sob and choke
The blamed ole critter would only croak,
And a wise old turtle, who boarded near,
Sez to the blackbird, "Friend, see here:
Don't shed no tears over him, fer he
Is low-down just 'cause he likes ter be;
He's one er them kind of chumps that's glad
To be so mis-rable-like and sad;
I'll tell yer something that ain't no joke,
Don't waste yer sorrer on folks that croak."

SOMETIME, SOMEWHERE

Unanswered yet? the prayer your lips have pleaded
  In agony of heart these many years?
Does faith begin to fail? Is hope departing?
  And think you all in vain those falling tears?
Say not the Father hath not heard your prayer;
You shall have your desire, sometime, somewhere.

Unanswered yet? though when you first presented
  This one petition at the Father's throne,
It seemed you could not wait the time of asking,
  So urgent was your heart to make it known.
Though years have passed since then, do not despair;
The Lord will answer you sometime, somewhere.

Unanswered yet? nay, do not say ungranted,
  Perhaps your part is not wholly done;
The work began when your first prayer was uttered,
  And God will finish what he has begun.
If you keep the incense burning there,
His glory you shall see, sometime, somewhere.

Unanswered yet? Faith cannot be unanswered;
  Her feet are firmly planted on the rock,
Amid the wildest storms she stands undaunted,
  Nor quails before the loudest thunder shock,
She knows Omnipotence hath heard her prayer,
And cries, "It shall be done, sometime, somewhere."

MIGHTIER THAN CIRCUMSTANCES

THERE is something within man which seems to say to him: "You are mightier than any situation or experience which can come to you. There is within you that which can master any adverse circumstance which appears in your life." Even though one has not discovered this power and utilized it, yet the thing is possible. At least, there is no one who would not want to find it and make it of service in handling situations.

Even the phrase, "Mightier than circumstance," conveys power. We feel that almost the speaking of such powerful words in time of adversity would scatter all trouble. The words, when we speak them, seem to issue from the voice of God within us. They seem to lift us far above the vexing experiences which one often meets in his daily experiences.

"Mightier than circumstances." Man, knowing the truth of his unity with God, is mightier than any external situation which can arise in his life. He is mightier than the evil doings of any person. He is mightier than anything outside of him.

"Mightier than circumstances." The truth of God is mightier than all belief in adversity and disease. There is no condition in the physical body which is mightier than God's healing truth. The truth about man's supreme perfection is mighty to destroy any pathological condition.

"Mightier than circumstances." Man is mightier than any disorder or injustice which can appear in his affairs or in his environment. Man's consciousness of Christ within him is mighty to dispel any adverse condition which can appear as his own.

If an experience comes to one, that one can master it. There is no personal problem which the individual cannot solve. There is no deception which Truth cannot reveal. There is no disease which the truth of God cannot remove and heal.

We can see how essential it is that we learn the truth of God and hold to it. This alone can give us the safety and security which God bestows upon man. Only by becoming mentally and spiritually mighty can we be mighty over the things of our world.

When man even begins to think of his mightiness he finds that it begins to develop. He finds that the might of God supercharges him with power and with courage to defeat anything in his sphere of action. He discovers that even his words about mightiness seem to summon the aid of God to his side. He finds that the words seem to raise his mind and his body to a higher degree of resistance.

He who gives much thought to this mightiness over experiences and situations can never again let himself believe that he is a victim of circumstances or the pawn of fate. He cannot think of himself as weak or as subordinated to any external will or power.

"Mightier than circumstances." In this realization we rest, in the assurance that God is with us at each and every moment of the day, lifting us higher and still higher to a consciousness of our invincible sonship. "Mightier than circumstances." Yes, mightier than any adverse condition because God within is all power and all might.

LIVING IN THE PRESENT

MUCH of the tension and worry which men allow themselves to fall into comes about through their living in the memory of unpleasant happenings of the past, or else through living in some fear or uncertainty about the future.

Those who live in the past, recalling joys or sorrows, fail to behold the beauties and splendors of the eternal now. They are so engrossed in living in a time which is no more that they miss the good times that are right at hand. There are persons who store up old letters and old laces and spend much time trying to live over again the days which they recall to mind. Some make contact with the past through ancient history and even at the present time are more like citizens of ancient Rome than they are like men of their own day.

Those who live in the future live in the rosy dream of a time when they will have plenty of money and pleasure. They are so busy looking ahead that they fail to enjoy the blessings that are right at hand. They are so engaged in providing for the rainy day of the future that they miss the sunshine of today.

The past is just like a thing which never existed. We recall it just as we conjure up a forgotten dream, be it a pleasant or an unhappy one. Just as the wide-awake man cannot live again in his dream, so the man of today cannot live in the days of the past.

It is sometimes possible to persuade a balky mule to go forward by dangling a bit of hay a short distance in front of his mouth. The poor animal keeps going, hoping to catch up with his food. So does the man who is a slave of the future just keep going in order to reach the reward which seems just a little distance in front of him.

The glorious today! The only time we can live! The past may allure and the future may beckon to us but only today can give us of itself. Only today is a living thing. In fact, only the present moment has anything at all of life. If we just live in the today we have no past to regret, no future to give us concern.

Beautiful today! No sun can ever shine so brightly for us as its sun. In fact, in reality, there is no other time and no other sun. No joy can ever make us quite so happy as today's joy.

Living in the eternal now! What a thrill this gives us! Actually living! Actually putting the past away, giving no worry to the future, just living today. Seeing the beauty of the great today. Enjoying the friends about us today. Enjoying countless blessings of God right here and now. Enjoying heaven on earth.

Let us live in the present. May we become apostles of the glorious today and teach others how to live life to the uttermost, right where they are. Let us give up all tendency to recall "once upon a time" or to live in the days when our ships will come in. Our ships are in port now, freighted with love, life, strength, and abundance. Their cargoes include every conceivable blessing. The Spirit of God is at the helms.

What a world revolutionizing doctrine is this one of living in the present!

FRIDAY, APRIL 1

Today's Dynamic Declaration: I have unwavering faith in God. He provides me with everything needed for my fullest expression.

I am free from all belief in worry over finances. I no longer doubt the power of God to provide everything that I need for my fullest expression. I do not believe that God's hand can be shortened. I do not believe that my heavenly Father can experience lack.

My faith in God is unwavering. Nothing can cause me to lose faith in the power of God to supply my every need. My faith is constant. In the face of adversity I have faith in the eternal goodness of God coming to my rescue.

I have faith in the power of love to triumph over hate. I have faith in the power of life to vanquish death. I have faith in the power of health to overcome disease. I have faith in the power of God to manifest in my life as countless blessings.

There can be no void in my life. The presence of God fills me to utter satisfaction. I have faith in God's ability to manifest himself when needed most. I have faith that right now and right here God is expressing himself through me.

But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, . . . shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?—Matt. 6:30.

SATURDAY, APRIL 2

Today's Dynamic Declaration: I do not live in the past or in the future. I live in the glorious today.

Today is the time for me to enjoy life. Now is the time for me to live life in its fullest. I have no desire to live in the past or to look into the future. This present moment is enough for me and from it I derive abundant joy.

I overcome all tendency to put off until tomorrow that which I should do today. I do not look to the future for my happiness. I am happy today. Now is the time for me to enjoy the blessings of God.

Today I realize that there is no time in Spirit. God's blessings are not delayed in reaching me. All of God's promises are now fulfilled.

I no longer claim blessings for the future. I fill today with blessings and I know that every day of the future will be bountifully provided for.

I make today one of the happiest days of my life. All my latent possibilities are now brought into expression. I now realize that my dreams have come true and that I can now accomplish that which I have always wanted to do.

Living in the eternal now, I live in God.

Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh the harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, that they are white already unto harvest.—John 4:35.

SUNDAY, APRIL 3

Today's Dynamic Declaration: I enjoy the blessings of heaven here and now.

I do not put my blessings off to the future. I no longer look to the future for the realization of heaven. I no longer think of heaven as existing in the distance, in some place apart from me.

I enjoy the kingdom of God here and now. All about me lies heaven. I am in the very midst of it. Heaven is within me and I am within it.

The love of heaven is here and now manifest and I am loving and kind. I find all with whom I come in contact expressing this heavenly love. All hate and anger have given way to the love of God.

The life and health which I have visioned for the future are here and now manifest. All belief in disease and death has been cast from my consciousness and I live in health and in heaven.

The peace and harmony of heaven are now expressed in the earth. There can be no confusion or disorder in God's kingdom. Peace is now reigning in my consciousness and at all times I am peaceful and harmonious.

I live in heavenly joy. No belief in depression or sorrow can mar my joy. I rejoice that the joy of heaven now surrounds me.

I have found the kingdom of God within me.

The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand.—Mark 1:15.

MONDAY, APRIL 4

Today's Dynamic Declaration: The perfect man of God in me now comes forth and I am transformed into health and perfection.

I am a reflection or meditation of divine mind. In this reflection God beholds himself manifest as perfect man. I am this divine idea of human perfection.

Every shadow is cleared from my vision and I see the Son of God in me coming forth, changing my whole mind and body into likeness of my heavenly Father. Every adverse belief in mind and every manifestation of disease is erased and I stand forth as God's perfect creation.

The image of God implanted in me in the beginning has never changed. I am this perfect image bespeaking the perfection of God's creation. I am God's image of peace, health, power, and love.

I will no longer imagine myself as anything short of divine perfection. My imagination is stayed upon Truth. I will not visualize adversity in any form. I will think of myself only as I exist in God.

True to the vision of Christ in me, I bring into manifestation the divine within me. The divine image is ever before my vision and I am true to it.

We all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Lord the Spirit.—II Cor. 3:18.

TUESDAY, APRIL 5

Today's Dynamic Declaration: Christ within me is mightier than anything in all the world and I am fearless and courageous.

I give up all tendency to think of any person or anything as having power to frighten or to dominate me. Nothing external to me can subordinate the Christ within me. Nothing without can cause Christ within me to lose fearlessness and courage.

Christ within me is greater than fear, hate, disease, or lack. The courage, love, life, and substance of Christ dissipate all belief in adversity. The power of Christ within me is greater than any so-called power of the world.

Christ within me keeps me fearless and courageous. Nothing in all the world can cause me to lose sight of Christ or to be untrue to him.

Christ within me is my stronghold. In Christ I am unafraid. In Christ I can surmount every obstacle.

Living in Christ I am secure from all adversity. I rest in that security which cannot pass away. I am established in an impregnable fortress against which nothing can prevail.

In Christ I am protected from every adversity. I cannot be moved from my strong consciousness of Truth.

Greater is he that is in you than he that is in the world.—I John 4:4.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6

Today's Dynamic Declaration: The light of God has scattered all darkness from my consciousness and I abide in the light.

The light of God now dawning on my consciousness puts all darkness to flight. No darkened beliefs can remain in the presence of this light. No beliefs in weakness, inharmony, hate, disease, lack, or death can remain in the presence of the light of God.

The light of God in my consciousness reveals my strength, peace, love, health, substance, and life to me. These can no longer be hidden from me. I am now fully aware of the presence of God's abundant blessings.

The light of God reveals Truth to me. I can no longer accept the lie for the truth. I no longer believe that adversity or disease is God's will for me. I know that God is constantly revealing more and more of life to me.

The presence of God as Light in my consciousness causes me to turn away from every form of darkness or adversity. Facing the light of Truth, I turn my back upon error and adversity. I face the light of God's holy presence.

All things are now revealed to me. I see the truth about all things clearly and distinctly.

I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me may not abide in the darkness.—John 12:46.

THURSDAY, APRIL 7

Today's Dynamic Declaration: The Spirit of Christ fills me and I am awake to my possibilities.

I am now aroused from all tendency to overlook my powers and possibilities. My inner eye cannot be closed to my innate capacities. I am awake to an understanding of all that I am able to accomplish.

Nothing that I need to know can be hidden from me. Everything which pertains to my life and my success is now revealed to me. The Spirit of Christ illumines my consciousness and I behold my place in the great universal scheme of life. I see myself doing the work which is mine to do. I behold myself nearing the goal to which I must go.

My illumined consciousness is governed, guided, and directed by the light of Christ. The truth of Christ now revealed to my consciousness sets me free from all the claims of darkness. The truth reveals to me all that I need to know.

I am now roused into action. The life of Spirit stirs and fills me with energy and vitality. I cannot be stagnant or dull in thought; I no longer tolerate inactivity in any part of my body.

The Spirit of Truth fills me completely. The energy of Spirit keeps me keen and alert to new ideas. My body tingles with new life.

Awake, thou that sleepest . . . and Christ shall shine upon thee.—Eph. 5:14.

FRIDAY, APRIL 8

Today's Dynamic Declaration: The presence of God fills and glorifies my body and I am filled with radiant health.

God, through his glorious presence, fills and thrills me with vitalizing and healing life. I am renewed and regenerated through this presence. All darkness and disease are cast from my mind and my body because God reigns supreme in my consciousness. He radiates from the center of my being to the uttermost parts of my mind and my body.

The presence of God is, to me, the presence of life, strength, and health. In this presence there is no place for disease, weakness, or death. In God I am alive and strong. In God I am free from every claim of disease. In his presence I am conscious of health from now henceforth.

Filled with the presence of God, I know that my every cell, nerve, bone, and muscle is filled with health. Each cell is filled with new life and energy. Each nerve is filled with peace and strength. Each bone is filled with the strength and substance of God. My muscles are mighty to endure every test.

The radiance of God within me causes my countenance to radiate health. In my face are mirrored the glory and the joy of Christ within me.

Know ye not that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit . . . glorify God therefore in your body.—I Cor. 6:19, 20.

SATURDAY, APRIL 9

Today's Dynamic Declaration: I am free from all doubt. Receptive to my highest good, I invite it to manifest in my life here and now.

I no longer doubt that my good is now coming into evidence. From the invisible my good is now coming into visibility.

I am open and receptive to every blessing which God would have manifest in and through me. I am receptive to every form of good. I attract naught but the good. The Christ in me draws to me good in every form. I am positive to the good.

Through my spiritual consciousness, through faith, I invite my own to come to me. I invite my health and my prosperity to manifest in and through me.

In faith I ask for (invite) whatever I need and I see it appear speedily. I ask for a clearer consciousness of truth and lo! it is mine. I ask for an increase in health and it is here. I ask for a wider field of service and my environment broadens.

The blessings which I invite bring other blessings with them. My blessings increase and increase in such abundant measure that I am literally immersed in God's loving-kindness. Everywhere about me I see the presence of the good which I have invited to come to me.

Ask in faith, nothing doubting.—James 1:6.

SUNDAY, APRIL 10

Today's Dynamic Declaration: Christ is ever with me and I fearlessly push forward to reach the goal of perfection.

Christ within me stirs me to accomplish that which I perceive is my life work. Nothing can keep me from reaching the goal that Christ has shown me is that for which I should strive.

I declare myself free from all fear and discouragement. Nothing can delay my growth. Nothing can keep me from accomplishing that which the Spirit within me has told me to perform.

I walk forward in the courage of Him who inspires and directs me. The presence of the Lord goes before me and brushes every adversity from my path. I go forward knowing that what I do in the name of the Lord is well done and successful.

I recognize nothing as having power to thwart the efforts of Spirit. No person, thing, or circumstance can keep the Christ within me from expression. Through me Christ now comes forth.

The presence of Christ cheers and inspires my every effort. Since Christ is with me, I have everything in my favor. I am in Christ and he is in me.

Christ now expresses himself through me and I am impelled to express myself. I am urged to do the work of Christ, the truth.

Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.—Matt. 14:27.

MONDAY, APRIL 11

Today's Dynamic Declaration: I am unified with the will of God and I determine to carry out his will in all that I think, say, and do.

I am one with the will of God. I give up all tendency to assert myself in any selfish way. I renounce all willfulness and stubbornness. That which I have known as "human will" is now transformed through the will of God.

Through my will I do what God would have me do. Through spiritual will I am determined to perform that which is for my highest good and for the highest good of those with whom I am associated.

I am determined to speak only good and constructive words. Through the will of God I am aided in this deliverance from evil and negative words.

I am determined to think only holy and noble thoughts. In accordance with divine will I can keep my thoughts harmonized with the thoughts of God.

I will act in accord with divine will. Freed from all desire to be guided by selfish longings and ambitions, I act from motives which are God-inspired.

The will of God is now being executed in and through me. God's will for me is harmony, health, and plenty.

The will is the executive faculty of the mind, and carries out the edicts of the I AM.—Christian Healing.

TUESDAY, APRIL 12

Today's Dynamic Declaration: Freed from all belief that poverty is my birthright, I lay hold of my abundant prosperity through Christ.

I am now free from the belief that it is God's will for me to lack any good thing. I do not believe that poverty has any place in my life or that it is my portion from God. I do not believe that there is any lack in God's kingdom or that lack is my inheritance from him.

I believe that God's will for me is plenty. I now raise my consciousness to perceive his substance now manifesting in all my affairs. I behold his plenty as coming to me as my own. I see his abundance as my abundance.

There is no place in my consciousness or in my world for any belief or any evidence of lack. God is substance. God as substance fills me and my world with plenty. God prospers me and all my affairs. His ways are ways of pleasantness and of abundance.

My mind is prosperous. It is filled with rich ideas. It recognizes no lack in God's kingdom. I am optimistic at all times. I see plenty everywhere. I know that plenty is man's.

Beloved, I pray that in all things thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.—III John 2.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 13

Today's Dynamic Declaration: Through the freeing truth of Christ, I am freed from adversity. I enjoy perfect freedom.

The truth of Christ frees me from adversity of every kind. I no longer can be enslaved by negative beliefs. Christ has set me free.

The truth of Christ sets me free from limiting beliefs. My consciousness is now liberated from negative thought. Since I know the truth about life, I cannot believe in disease and death. Since I know the truth of my perfect freedom, I cannot be bound to limitation.

Rejoicing in the freedom of Christ, I rejoice in my own perfect freedom. No person or thing can keep me in bondage. Nothing can limit the freedom of Christ which is now expressed in me.

Rejoicing in the freedom of Christ, I rejoice in perfect health. I rejoice that every part of my body is free from weakness and disease. I rejoice that it is filled with the free-flowing life of Christ.

In the freedom of Christ, I am free indeed. I am free from every belief in slavery, bondage, and limitation. I am free, free, free!

I set all people and all things free from any limited thoughts which I might have had about them. I give freedom even as I would want to have freedom.

Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.—John 8:32.

THURSDAY, APRIL 14

Today's Dynamic Declaration: I am never alone. The Presence of Christ makes me happy at all times.

I am free from all belief in lonesomeness. I am never alone. Christ is ever with me. He is my constant companion.

Christ can never be separated from me. I can know no such thing as separation from him. I cannot feel that I must stand alone or fight alone. Christ inspires me even when times are strenuous. Christ fights all my battles, rights every circumstance.

Christ is life, joy, and happiness to me. In the life of Christ I find perfect contentment. In the joy of Christ I am forever happy and joyful.

Wherever I go, Christ goes. Christ within me is found wherever I am. I put the Spirit of Christ into all that I do because Christ within me does the work.

I am in constant communion with Christ. I live in him and enjoy his love and joy. I am in a constant state of happiness because Christ is constant in joy.

The Christ of God is my Christ of happiness. He is a veritable sun to me. He shines forever within me and keeps me free from all sense of being alone. He shines in and through me.

Learn first how to commune alone with the Creator of the universe, who is all companionship. —Lessons in Truth.

FRIDAY, APRIL 15

Today's Dynamic Declaration: I refuse to be sad. God in the midst of me inspires me to rejoice.

I deny that persons or things can cause me to lose sight of the joy of the Lord. I refuse to be sorrowful. I refuse to let sadness diminish my joy.

God's man is not a thing of sorrow. I am God's man and I celebrate the joy of the Lord. I fill my days with abundant joy.

The joy of God in the midst of me now comes forth, filling my mind and my body with abundant joy. I view all things through a cheerful attitude. I see all things as contributing to my good cheer.

Those with whom I am associated make me happy. From them I derive joy and happiness. My relatives can bring me naught but joy. My business associates are sources of happiness for me.

The joy of the Lord now breaks forth in me and I am filled with feelings of joy; every shadow of sorrow gives place to the light of eternal joy; every frown gives way to a smile. My countenance is now expressing joy and good cheer.

I will no longer burden others with sorrowful tales. I rejoice to spread the contagion of happiness. I am happy to make others happy.

I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.—Jer. 31:13.

SATURDAY, APRIL 16

Today's Dynamic Declaration: Turning away from the shadows, I face the light of Christ.

My vision is no longer focused upon the limited things of life. I look away from the shadows. I do not look for faults or limitations. I do not seek the sordid things of life.

My mind is turned from that which is debasing. I give my thought to that which is high and noble. My mentality is spiritualized; it is purified through spiritual thought.

I turn away from all thought about inharmony, worry, fear, disease, poverty, and death. I erase such beliefs from my mentality. I clear them from my vision. I wipe these negative things from my life by refusing to think about them or to see them.

Looking toward the light of truth, I behold the Christ. I perceive the perfection of all things. I see my whole world as revealed by the light of truth.

My mind is set upon constructive things. Through spiritual consciousness my mind is linked with the mind of God and I think the noble thoughts of God.

My mind is established in peace, health, plenty, and love. The peace of Christ keeps me harmonious and pleasant.

Set your mind on the things that are above, not on the things that are upon the earth.—Col. 3:2.

SUNDAY, APRIL 17

Today's Dynamic Declaration: The new life of Christ in me bursts all bonds of limitation and I am free to express my Christ self.

I am free from every confining influence. Every limitation in my life is now overcome. I rise out of bondage to materiality.

This day I rise to the very heights of my possibilities. I ascend to the pinnacle of spiritual consciousness. I arise and ascend to my heavenly Father. I ascend to the consciousness in which I perceive myself unfettered and unbound, realizing the fullness of God's mercy and blessings.

The new life of Christ in me makes me a new creature. I have a new consciousness and new ideas. I think new thoughts. My mind is impregnated with new substance.

My body is this day resurrected from old beliefs. Not a trace of weakness or disease can remain in me. My body now blooms with health. Eternal springtime is now celebrating itself in my very being.

I am free to express that which I have long desired to express. I express peace, joy, and health. I live my own life because I am wholly free.

My soul breaks every self-imposed bond and I am a free soul, free to express the Christ. My soul rejoices to know God and to manifest him.

MONDAY, APRIL 18

Today's Dynamic Declaration: I am one with God. He expresses himself in and through me.

I am one with God and one with all that he is. I am one with his life, strength, and joy. I am one with all the good in the universe.

I am eternally unified with God within me. He is constantly with me. No adverse thought can keep me from realizing this truth.

God in the midst of me is ever impelling me to be like himself. I am now taking on the likeness of perfection, youth, beauty, life, and strength. I am created by God in his own image and after his likeness.

God in my midst is a source of life and health. I am unified with God and one with his health and life. I am forever joined with his life and this life pours in and through me at all times.

I see all things through the eyes of God. I behold everything as God sees it. Looking through spiritual eyes I see all things in their right relationship.

Listening for the sweet harmonies of life, I hear harmony in place of discord.

I am one with God.
His vision is but my own clear, perfect vision;
His hearing, my ear tuned to harmony;
His love, the holy love of my own heart;
I am one with God.

—Beginning Again.

TUESDAY, APRIL 19

Today's Dynamic Declaration: The peace of God fills my heart and I am at peace with all things.

The peace of God sets me free from all tendency to be inharmonious, worried, and irritable. This peace pervades my consciousness and gives me peaceful thoughts. I exchange inharmonious thoughts for thoughts of harmony and peace.

My heart is filled with the abundance of God's peace. I feel at peace with all persons and all things. Every one whom I contact senses this peace and, in turn, is lifted to the holy peace and quietness of Spirit.

I am at peace with the past. All memory of wrongs is wiped from my consciousness and I am at peace with past events. I am pacified and reconciled to the holy peace of God.

I am at peace with my environment. Nothing can disturb the calm peace of my soul. My inner peace extends to the very circumference of my environment.

I am at peace with life. I find no disappointments in life. I do not resist the circumstances which take place in my affairs.

My heart overflows with peace. I see myself and my whole world established in the peace of God which passes all human understanding.

Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts. —Col. 3:15.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20

Today's Dynamic Declaration: Spiritual faith springs into my consciousness and I am made whole and perfect.

This statement is the Silent Unity healing word to be used from April 20 to May 20.

I have faith in spiritual things: life, love, and truth. My consciousness is vibrant with the deep things of faith. I have faith that right now my mind and my body are becoming spiritualized.

My faith is spiritual because it is established in Spirit. My consciousness is built upon the very substance of faith. The faith which springs into my consciousness causes me to believe that only the good can be true in my life.

I am free from every disbelief in good. My faith makes me whole and well. My faith centered upon God, my life, causes me to lay hold of life and health.

I am whole and well in every part. Not a trace of weakness or disease can remain in my body. Through faith I lay hold of innate perfection.

The presence of Christ restores me to harmony and health. Christ, the truth, has freed me from every form of disease. Christ, the truth, unburdens my mind and my body and I am entirely free.

I abide in the faith which removes mountains. I live in the faith which is the substance of all that I desire.

Thy faith hath made thee whole.—Matt. 9:22.

THURSDAY, APRIL 21

Today's Dynamic Declaration: Spiritual faith makes omnipresent substance manifest, and prosperity appears everywhere.

My faith in the good things of life makes them manifest for me. I am now in the midst of my Father's blessings. They are mine to enjoy here and now.

I wipe all belief in poverty from my consciousness. Free from belief in lack, I lay hold of the riches of God.

Prosperity appears to me wherever I am. Filled with faith in plenty, I draw it to me. My rich consciousness of plenty causes it to come to me whenever I need it.

I have the same faith that Jesus had when he multiplied the loaves and the fishes. The increasing, multiplying power of divine substance is now working in all my affairs.

I have the same faith that Jesus had when he ordered the tax money to be taken from the mouth of a fish. I know that whatever I need will be made to appear. I need not ask in what way it will come or when it will make its appearance.

Prosperity appears in all my affairs. My business is prosperous because back of it is the consciousness which makes prosperity manifest.

A faithful man shall abound with blessings. —Prov. 28:20.

FRIDAY, APRIL 22

Today's Dynamic Declaration: I am always ready to inspire and encourage others and to help them find the light of Christ within.

I have no desire to discourage others. I am not interested in criticizing or condemning them. I take an impersonal view of life and I free myself from all inclination to deal with personalities.

I am willing to lift up and to inspire all whom I contact. I am willing to encourage them to find themselves, to find the Christ within and to be guided by his light.

The inspiring light of Christ within me inspires those about me to know the truth. They are inspired to turn from self-depreciation and discouragement to the light of truth. They are encouraged to turn from their discouragement and to rise to a consciousness of their innate ability to do all things.

I am willing to give a helping hand to any one who needs my service. I am willing to serve the Christ in this way, willing to be the channel through which Christ serves and rescues.

The inspiring Spirit of Christ is now doing its perfect work in me and in all men. We are now being led to see ourselves as we exist in God. We behold ourselves as we exist in truth—perfect and whole.

Lift up rather than condemn any who are struggling toward the light.—Miscellaneous Writings.

SATURDAY, APRIL 23

Today's Dynamic Declaration: Freed from the darkness of hate, I abide in the light of love.

Abiding in the light of Christ, I see all men as they exist in love, in God. I see all of them freed from hate. I behold them resting in the love of other men even as they rest in the love of God.

Abiding in love, I abide in the spiritual consciousness in which I see my fellow man free from personal limitation. I see him free from hate, envy, fear, disease, lack, and death. Existing in love, he cannot be harmed by any of these. Existing in love, he abides in harmony, health, and strength.

Established in the light of truth, I have power to turn hate and envy into love. I can transform every adverse situation into one of love. I can change limitation into perfection.

Love rules my life. Its law annuls every law of adversity which I may have thought of as having power to affect me or my life. Love ruling me, I cannot be under the government of any other power. In reality, love is the only power there is.

Love inspires, guides, and directs me. Nothing but love can direct my thought, word, and deed from this time henceforth.

He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is no occasion of stumbling in him.—I John 2:10.

SUNDAY, APRIL 24

Today's Dynamic Declaration: As the son of God, I am open and receptive to his wisdom and love.

I am receptive to all the blessings of God. I am an open channel to receive all that my Father has to give me. I am willing to make myself an avenue through which his love and wisdom can be given expression.

I give up all feeling of tension and resistance. I am no longer closed to the inflow and the outflow of God's blessings. I am not resistant to anything in which the Spirit of God is present.

I lay hold of my sonship in God even as Jesus laid hold of his. In God I abide with my Elder Brother, Jesus Christ. Our Father, God, is well pleased with us and with all the rest of his splendid sons. In our heavenly Father's love and wisdom we are all-loving and all-wise.

As a son of God, I am like my Father. I am created in his image and after his likeness. I am created in the image of perfection. I am like the Perfect One and I give up every adverse belief in order to lay hold of my inheritance incorruptible.

As the son of God I know the thoughts of God.

As a son of God I make my body a fit temple for God's presence. I am healthy, alive, and strong.

As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God.—John 1:12 (A. V.).

MONDAY, APRIL 25

Today's Dynamic Declaration: The wisdom and the good judgment of God govern all my deliberations and I am wise in all my decisions.

The justice and the judgment of God affect all my decisions and I know how to decide all things wisely and well. I cannot be undecided when governed by divine justice and wisdom. I cannot make unwise decisions when directed by my inner Spirit of justice.

I do not think of myself as unable to make wise decisions. I do not declare myself inefficient and unworthy to decide wisely when called upon to make decisions. I do not think of myself as hesitating and undecided.

From God within me I derive power to know just what to do when occasion demands. I am not divided in my thought. I see but one path—the right one. The Spirit of God points out the right way to me.

Good judgment governs and directs my every thought, word, and act. All that I think is ruled by the judgment of Christ within me.

Good judgment governs the handling of all of my finances.

Take the stand that it is your inheritance from God to judge wisely and quickly, and do not depart therefrom by statements of inefficiency in matters of judgment.—Christian Healing.

TUESDAY, APRIL 26

Today's Dynamic Declaration: Divine order is now manifest in all my affairs and all things are working to my highest good.

Every situation which comes into my life is turned to good. Nothing can work adversely in my affairs. Through spiritual consciousness I change evil to good. I transform disorder and chaos into divine order.

The adjusting, harmonizing, organizing power of Spirit harmonizes my environment and all my affairs. The law of right adjustment now adjusts all situations. All things are put in their right relation to one another.

My affairs are harmonious because God, the Spirit of harmony, is now at work in them. No inharmonious or discordant thought can enter. Only that which is orderly, of God, can come into my affairs.

My environment is God. His presence creates an atmosphere of harmony and peace. I live in this presence and I think orderly thoughts. All that I do takes on orderliness.

Every event which takes place in my life must yield its good to me. Every circumstance must do its part in keeping my affairs harmonious and orderly. Every situation helps me to know more of God. Every event brings with it something of good for me.

To them that love God all things work together for good.—Rom. 8:28.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27

Today's Dynamic Declaration: I am true to Principle, God, and I remain steadfast to him in all my doings.

I remain true to God in the face of every trying situation. Nothing can deflect me from my intention to be loyal to Principle, God. The principle of Truth at work in me and my affairs annuls every so-called law of evil and of disorder.

I am true to God even when all those about me seem to lose their poise and vision. I am true to the principle of right, honesty, and good. Only the law of Spirit can appeal to me for support.

My heart is steadfast and loyal to one God. I have no interest in things which are adverse to Truth. I have no faith in disease, weakness, or failure. I pledge myself to health, strength, and success.

I am loyal to every good thing. I am loyal to every good cause and am willing to give it my support. Loyalty and fidelity are now manifest in me and I am loyal and faithful. I give my allegiance to God, the principle of Truth.

Steadfastly facing God, I turn from every shadow. I turn away from every adverse appearance in order to behold the light of God. I give up every personal ambition in order to be loyal to the impersonal Spirit of God.

He that standeth stedfast in his heart . . . shall do well.—I Cor. 7:37.

THURSDAY, APRIL 28

Today's Dynamic Declaration: I am alive in the eternal life of Christ.

I live because Christ within me lives. Christ is the deathless, eternal life of God. Christ within me is immortal. He is from eternity to eternity.

I am alive forevermore in the unchanging life of Christ. I live eternally in Christ because Christ is eternally alive.

The life of Christ at work in my consciousness erases every belief in disease and death. I think of life, not death, as man's gift from God. Death, the last enemy, is now overcome through knowledge of the truth. The truth about life as taught by Jesus has set me free from belief in disease and death.

The life of Christ at work in my body frees me from all disease and death. My body is a living temple filled with the living presence of Christ. There is no place in my body for disease or death to enter or to remain. The presence of Christ, life eternal, fills me to completeness. The presence of Christ life keeps me steadfast to the truth about eternal life.

Often a person does not get the clear realization of Truth because the lie about man cannot easily be dislodged from his consciousness. He is more aware of the belief that he is mortal, subject to death, than he is aware of the truth that he is invincible and immortal.—Getting the Clear Realization.

FRIDAY, APRIL 29

Today's Dynamic Declaration: Neither evil or limitation has any power in me or in my life. The omnipotence of God is the only power I recognize.

I no longer think of evil or limitation as having any power in my world. The belief in evil in no wise can limit or hinder me. I can give no thought to that which is ungodlike or without foundation in Truth.

God, omnipotent power, rules my consciousness in all things. The power of God brings me to the realization that there is no power in evil or disease. The all-powerfulness of God fills my consciousness.

Nothing but God can have power in my affairs. The goodness of God is everywhere expressed. The power of God in my affairs makes them prosperous and successful.

There is but one Presence and one Power operating in my affairs—God omnipotent. He reigns supreme in all of my activities.

I am free from all belief that anything evil or adverse can affect me or rule my life. I do not believe in devils or evil influences.

God is all the power that there is. God's power manifesting in and through me fills my mind and my body with power and strength.

The Lord God omnipotent reigneth.—Rev. 19:6 (A. V.).

SATURDAY, APRIL 30

Today's Dynamic Declaration: God within me is omniscient and in him I know all that I need to know.

I do not recognize anything as too difficult for me to understand. I do not limit my power of comprehension. I do not limit myself in any way.

God within me is all-wise. As his son I know everything which I need to know. As his son I cannot lack or need knowledge. I am the image of my Father, the all-wise One.

I can solve every problem which comes to me. Every problem has its solution. Every mystery is revealed.

I have power to see past the problem and to see its solution. I have power to look back of the mystery and to see the revelation. I have power to rise out of ignorance into the light.

To me, the son of God, he has given power to penetrate all things and to see the truth about them. Through my clear vision I can see past the material and see the spiritual and ideal.

God within me knows no lack of knowledge. I cannot know such lack. I cannot be undecided. I cannot fail to judge things aright. God within me at all times points the way to me.

God within me is my wisdom.

Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven.—Matt. 13:11.

LOOK FOR THE GOOD

F. B. W.

I saw the world through eyes of woe
    And woe was everywhere;
And, as I looked, I did not know
    Why good I could not share.

The more I looked, the more I saw
    Of evil's dark'ning way.
It seemed as if there was a law
    By which it darkened day.

I turned and, through God's holy eyes,
    Again I looked around.
Imagine now my great surprise—
    No evil sight nor sound.

Now, did this evil come and go?
    What made it disappear?
Why does it leave us when we know
    The truth and have no fear?

If we the good would always find,
    On good we must reflect;
For we behold what's in the mind
    And find what we expect.
